With student orientation in full force and planning for fall events well underway, that can only mean one thing - the countdown to Fall semester is on!

This issue of The Loop is full of resources and dates to prepare you for the most glorious time of the year. Look for two issues of The Loop in August – one before Move In and one after. As always, our team is here to answer questions or point you in the right direction – feel free to reach out anytime. You can find our contact info below.

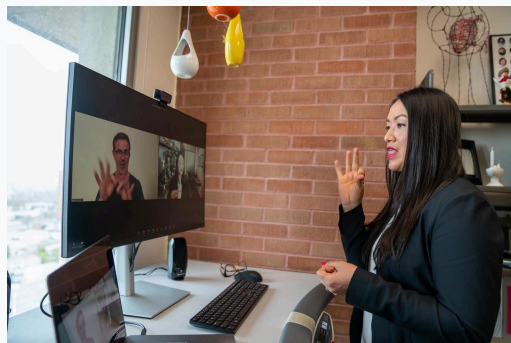

Resources

The Feed U Pantry is open all summer long, with pantry staples, fruits and vegetables - free for students with their UID.

Utah Day 1 Book Access Program – No more lugging heavy textbooks to class, the Utah Day 1 Book Access Program is sleeker, easier and tech savvy.

The Center for Disability and Access is available for students all year. If you are an incoming student, check out the resources listed at the top of the center's page and be sure to complete the intake form before the beginning of Fall semester.

Need to blow off a little steam? Don't forget about the Union's Rec space. Huck some bowling balls down the alley, shoot some pool or grab a buddy for a rousing game of ping pong.

If Greek life is your thing, check out this page for all the details about fall recruitment.
